Click SHOP and see Sale Schedule

I have plenty of stuff and would love to consign but I just won't have the time to prepare my items and bring them to the event. Do I have another option?

Yes, you have two options:

- 1) You can donate items to be sold at The Ultimate Exchange Shopping Event on behalf of your chosen charity and we would pick up your items at no charge.
- 2) You could use our Personal Consignment Service where we pick up, prep your already cleaned items, and complete the data and tagging process for you. We will then return any unsold items that you choose not to donate at the end of the sale to you. (more information in our pick-up & drop-off section)

With either option, you will still have all consignor privileges. See Consignment Services for deadlines.

Is pricing my items with the barcoded tagging system easy?
